Explanation regarding proper use of business forecasts, and other significant matters

1. The financial forecast given above is based on information as available at the present time, and includes potential risks and uncertainties. As a consequence of the factors above and other, actual results may vary from the forecasts provided above. Regarding the assumptions for the forecasts and other matters, refer to "SUPPLEMENT INFORMATION (CONSOLIDATED)", "3. Outlook for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2023" on page 4.
2. Makita's basic policy on the distribution of profits is to maintain a consolidated dividend payout ratio of 30% or greater, with a lower limit on annual cash dividends of 10 yen per share. However, in the event special circumstances arise, computation of the amount of dividends will be based on profit attributable to owners of the parent per share after certain adjustments.

The Board of Directors plans to meet in April 2023 for a report on earnings for the year ending March 31, 2023. At the time, in accordance with the basic policy regarding profit distribution mentioned above, the Board of Directors plans to propose a dividend equivalent to at least 30% of profit attributable to owners of the parent. The Board of Directors will submit this proposal to the General Meeting of Shareholders scheduled for June 2023.

The consolidated dividend payout ratio is calculated as annual dividends per share divided by consolidated profit attributable to owners of the parent per share (after adjustments for special circumstances) and multiplied by 100.

SUPPLEMENT INFORMATION (CONSOLIDATED)

1. Overview of operating results

(1) Overview of operating results of the nine months ended December 31, 2022

Looking at the international economic situation during the nine-month period (the “period”) ended December 31, 2022, concerns over a global economic downturn have heightened against the backdrop of factors including high inflation, monetary tightening in various countries and the energy crisis associated with the prolongation of the war in Ukraine.

In the consolidated cumulative third quarter, although sales were sluggish in Europe and North America, our consolidated revenue increased 6.1% year on year to 580,283 million yen due to strong sales in Japan and Oceania, as well as the impact of the yen’s depreciation and strong local currencies. In terms of profit, operating profit decreased by 62.9% year on year to 27,158 million yen (operating profit ratio 4.7%) due to a worsening cost ratio as a result of the impact of foreign exchange rates and soaring raw material prices, along with an increase in selling, general, administrative and others expense. Profit before income taxes decreased by 64.1% year on year to 26,002 million yen (profit before income taxes ratio: 4.5%), and profit attributable to owners of the parent decreased by 72.3% to 14,219 million yen (ratio of profit attributable to owners of the parent: 2.4%).

Revenue results by region were as follows:

In Japan, as stay-at-home demand subsided, we mainly secured sales of cordless outdoor power equipment and the new XGT series of products, resulting in a 2.3% increase year on year to 90,798 million yen.

In Europe, as sales decreased due to deteriorating business confidence caused by high inflation, monetary tightening, and uncertainty concerning energy supply, but revenue increased by 0.6% year on year to 263,017 million yen due to the depreciation of the yen against local currencies.

In North America, while sales decreased as stay-at-home demand subsided and monetary tightening created wariness of a recession, revenue increased 14.6% year on year to 92,364 million yen due to the depreciation of the yen against local currencies.

In Asia, although there was market turmoil around China’s zero COVID-19 policy and impacts from monetary tightening in various countries, sales were strong in Taiwan and other countries and the depreciation of the yen against local currencies contributed to revenue increasing by 17.7% year-on-year to 42,240 million yen.

In Central and South America, while sales decreased due to accelerating inflation and increased uncertainty concerning the future in each country, revenue increased 16.9% year on year to 36,830 million yen due to the depreciation of the yen against local currencies.

In Oceania, despite negative economic factors such as surging construction material prices and monetary tightening, strong sales of new products and outdoor power equipment resulted in a 15.4% year on year increase to 44,208 million yen.

In the Middle East and Africa, despite continuing unstable political and economic conditions, revenue increased 6.7% year on year to 10,826 million yen due to the depreciation of the yen against local currencies.

(2) Overview of financial situation as of December 31, 2022

Total assets as of December 31, 2022 increased by 109,866 million yen to 1,117,363 million yen compared to the balance as of March 31, 2022. This increase was mainly due to the rise in “Cash and cash equivalents.”

Total liabilities increased by 99,505 million yen to 354,472 million yen compared to the balance as of March 31, 2022. This increase was mainly due to the rise in “Borrowings.”

Total equity increased by 10,361 million yen to 762,891 million yen compared to the balance as of March 31, 2022. This increase was mainly due to the change in exchange differences on translating foreign operations included in “Other components of equity.”

(3) Outlook for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2023

Although exchange rates have trended in a slightly profit increasing direction than the forecast announced publicly on October 28, 2022, sales during the third quarter cumulative period slowed down mainly in the West, and raw material procurement costs increased above previous expectations in association with the progress of inflation.

Regarding the full-year consolidated financial results, revenue is expected to exceed the previous forecast as overseas revenue has increased due to the depreciation of the yen, despite the sales environment remaining severe. However, profit is expected to be below the previous forecast due to increased costs related to inventory optimization.

Revised forecast for consolidated performance of the fiscal year ending March 31, 2023 (From April 1, 2022 to March 31, 2023)

The assumed exchange rates applied in the forecast calculation are as follows;

[Preconditions]

The above forecast is based on the assumption of exchange rates of 130 yen to the U.S. dollar, 140 yen to the euro and 19.2 yen to the renminbi for the remaining three months period ending March 31, 2023.

The above forecast is based on the assumption of exchange rates of 135 yen to the U.S. dollar, 140 yen to the euro and 19.7 yen to the renminbi for the year ending March 31, 2023.

[Reference]

The exchange rates for previously announced forecasts that we announced on October 28, 2022 were 137 yen to the U.S. dollar, 137 yen to the euro and 20.0 yen to the renminbi for the year ending March 31, 2023.

(Note): The above forecast is based on information as available at the present time, and includes potential risks and uncertainties. As a consequence of the factors above and other, actual results may vary significantly from the forecast provided above.
